Consent for Telehealth Encounter

Thank you for allowing Amy Guinther from Madison Acupuncture & Complementary Medicine to provide this Telehealth Encounter. I will need to obtain your consent for this telehealth encounter. If you are a parent/legally authorized representative of a child, please understand that "you" means the child. By agreeing to this encounter you acknowledge that:

- You have the right to refuse or stop participation in telehealth services at any time and request alternate services such as an in-person visit. Any alternate services will need to be scheduled for a different time.
- If you do not want to receive health care services by telehealth, it will not affect your right to future care or treatment.
- All confidentiality protections required by law or regulation will apply to your care.
- You will be informed of any other people who are present at either end of the telehealth encounter and you have the right to exclude anyone from either location.
- Any information in your medical record resulting from this telehealth encounter will be available to you per standard office policy, rules and regulations.
- If an emergency occurs during this telehealth encounter, you should call 911 and stay on the telehealth connection until help arrives.

Do you give consent to continue this telehealth visit?
